$600,000 SEWAGE BOND HERE SOON

Bond Issue for Sewage Plant To Be Presented Here Within 90 Days

A bond issue estimated at $600,000 for building of a sewage treatment plant is scheduled to be presented to voters of Daly City and Colma within 60 or 90 days.

Anthony Gaggero, president of the sewage district sanitary board, said a meeting for making preliminary plans on the issue is tentatively scheduled for Monday afternoon at the council chambers here.

Decision to begin laying the groundwork for the bond issue was begun early this week at a meeting of the three-man sanitary board, composed of Supervisor Thomas Hickey, Gaggero, and James Kennedy, secretary.

It was also agreed to hold future meetings on the second Mondays of succeeding months.

The district starts at the San Francisco City-County line in the north, extending to D street in Colma to the south, and from the old San Pedro road in the east to Thornton beach in the west.

Flood of Complaints

Reason for going ahead on the bond issue was the flood of complaints from the state health department, the water pollution board and the San Francisco health department on the dumping of raw sewage into the ocean at Thornton beach.

The sewage plant is intended to be of the primary treatment type such as exist in South San Francisco and San Bruno. It will be located at a settling pond south of Lake Merced, just off Alemany boulevard, Gaggero said.

However, according to Kennedy, the site will not be obtrusive and will not create any nuisance for adjoining land owners.

A preliminary report from Harry Jenks, engineer, must be submitted to the board of directors of the sanitation district and approved before the issue can go on the ballot.

Two Alternatives

However, in event the bond fails, there are only two alternatives. One would be to submit the bond issue again, the other being construction of the sewage plant by the state. If the latter is done cost of building the plant would still rest on the district.

Primary plans and specifications will be completed by Dec. 1, according to Gaggero, and the district's voters will go to the polls to ballot on the bond by the end of January by the latest.

James R. Mason Will Be New Rec Director Here

James Richard Mason, 25, of Fairfield, wil lbe formally appointed recreation director Monday night at the regular city council meeting.

After the council had interviewed the four applicants, Mason, Kenneth Redlin, Susan Gordon and Betty Rank, Monday night the decision was made to appoint Mason.

City Administrator Dan Andersen contacted Mason by phone at his Fairfield address and Mason accepted the position. He had earlier asked for a salary of $375 but the council had set the beginning salary at $350. Mason agreed to the salary set by the council, with agreement that after he had proved himself in the spot he would be eligible for a higher rate of pay.

The new director is presently employed as recreation director in Fairfield. He had high recommendations from Albert J. Terreme, director of physical education and athletics at Menlo-Atherton high school, Eb Rust, Fairfield insurance man, and Charles L. Sullivan, superintendent of the Fairfield elementary school district.

The appointee spent a total of 16 months in the armed forces, four of them overseas. He was graduated from Stanford University in 1951 with bachelor of arts and master of arts degrees and a general secondary credential. He is a member of the California recreation society.

Mason will assume his new position Dec. 15. Elman Rose, present director, has agreed to serve with Mason for a period of two weeks to acquaint him with the set-up here.

The Lions will take over Arneson's Chevron station tomorrow and all profits from the day's work will go to a fund for the Girl Scouts' summer camp. 85% Vote At Local Polls

Daly City's voters turned out Tuesday in numbers unheard of here to smash all existing records for any local elections in history.

A total of 9348 citizens cast their ballots Tuesday to bring the percentage to 85.2 per cent of the 10,830 eligible to vote in the election. County election officers said the figure would probably reach nearer 89 per cent after absentee ballots had been tabulated. This figure was one of the highest percentages recorded in the county.

By 10 a.m. election morning between 21 and 29 per cent of the eligible voters had cast their ballots here, as compared with 12 per cent cast by that time in previous years.

At noon the figure ranged from 42 to 53 per cent in the 46 precincts, a figure far above the 24 per cent usually recorded at the mid-day mark.

The vote here topped by almost 4000 the ballotting in the 1948 general election, 5500, a new record at that time.

In the presidential contest a decided swing to the Republican party was evidenced. In 1948 Thomas E. Dewey, GOP offering, polled 1716 votes, or about one-half the number received by Harry S. Truman. President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower received the nod from 4520 voters Tuesday, and only trailed Adlai Stevenson by 129 votes.

Perennial hangers-on in the national race, the Socialist Labor party, Independent Progressive and the Prohibitionists each claimed a few supporters here. Vincent Hallinan, progressive, ranked highest among the minority parties with 29 votes. Charlotta A. Bass, Socialist Labor, and Stuart Hamblen, Prohibition, each tallied nine.

Loser in the contest for representative from the ninth district, Harold Taggart, showed up strongest in the north county, especially Daly City, garnering 4848, while Arthur Younger received 3526. The demo candidate won only eight cities, six of them in the northern section.

The hotly-contested Proposition No. 3 was given strong "yes" support here, receiving 5128 votes for it, 3658 against.

5-Year Old Critically Injured Halloween

Halloween night, reported by local police as being comparatively quiet, was marred by the critical injury of five-year-old Phillip James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur James, 1759 Louvaine drive, Colma.

The youngster, attired in a clown costume and enjoying the "trick or treat" activities with his friends, was hit and critically injured by a vehicle driven by a father who was searching for his own two children.

Physicians at St. Francis hospital in San Francisco labored all through that night and into the morning to save the life of the youngster. At the time doctors said he periodically regained consciousness, but then lapsed into comas from time to time.

The young boy's mother said Tuesday that the child was still not out of danger. Two thirds of his skull is known to be fractured, his nose is broken and his tongue is pushed into his throat.

Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage said the accident occurred on Louvaine drive, near Washington street at 7 p.m. The driver of the car, Palmiro Nolli, 40, an accountant of 812 Heather road, was proceeding slowly down the street looking for his own two children when the James' child, his vision aparently blocked by the Halloween mask he was wearing, ran suddenly into the street. A headlight of Nolli's car struck the youngster.

YOUTHFUL THIEF MAKES GETAWAY

A youthful car thief made a clean getaway here early Monday morning after police had spotted the car he was driving to be stolen.

A San Francisco police officer observed the young driver in the car at 4:30 a.m. Monday morning and stopped him for questioning.

The youth told the officer the car was his father's, and he was using it without his permission. The officer suggested that they go consult the father but the driver said that would get him in a lot of trouble.

The policeman, getting suspicious, went to the rear of the car to check the license, whereupon the youngster sped off. He chased the car, but the driver jumped out on Vale street, leaving the car to smash in a pole.

The youth was nowhere to be found. On checking the stolen car list, the damaged vehicle was found to belong to Don Snyder, 272 Henry, San Francisco. When police called him he expressed surprise at discovering his car to be stolen, but verified the matter by looking out the window where his car should have been seen.

A $10,000 estate, left entirely to one daughter of Mrs. Susie A. Goody, will be contested by George H. Goody, 44 Woodrow street, Daly City.

Mrs. Goody, who died in San Jose last year, left "in excess of $10,000."

Goody, who was disinherited, filed to contest the will in San Jose superior court last week. He contends the 1929 will, which left him without any of the estate, is invalid because it was improperly drawn. A codicil to the will, dated Aug. 24, 1949, specifically named one daughter as heiress.

DALY CITY LIONS SET FOR DAY AT PUMPS TOMORROW

Tomorrow's the big day for the Daly City-Colma Lions when they will hold their "day at the pumps" at Arneson's Service Station, 7198 Mission street.

Lions have made a request to all motorists to allow their gas tanks to run low and come in for a refill at Arneson's.

Each Lion has been asked to give two hours of his time toward the project. All servicing will be done by the Lions and the proceeds of the day will go to a fund for the Girl Scouts' summer camp.

The station will be open all day tomorrow. Lion Grant Williams will act as master of ceremonies for the affair.

The project has been tried by Lion clubs in other communities and has proved a success.

Council Meets Monday

Regular meeting of the Daly City council will be held Monday night at 8 o'clock. Approval of the new Rec director is among business scheduled.

Drive for OLPH Funds To Be Held Here Sunday Night

"Kick-off" campaign in an effort to pay off the debt on Our Lady of Perpetual Help church will be held here Sunday night.

The on-foot campaign is unique in that it will be only the one night in duration.

A similar type quest for funds was held for Holy Angels church in Colma July 13 and $92,000 was contributed in one night.

Heading the campaign is John Muller, while the executive committee consists of Judge William Sweeney and Anthony Parmisino.

There will be a total of 300 persons working in the effort to obtain funds to pay the church's $297,000 debt.

Preliminary plans for the one-night drive have been in progress for the past month. Many of the campaign group met in the church a week ago Monday to hear reports on the number of captains to be working in each division and to discuss further plans. There are eight division chairmen scheduled to take part in the drive.

Cabbage Patch King Jailed

Hing Allegedly Paid $15,000 Monthly To County Officials for Operation

Chin Bok Hing, 64, known as the "King of the Cabbage Patch" gambling club in Colma, was fined $20,000 and sentenced to 10 years in federal prison in Federal Judge Edward P. Murphy's court Monday.

During the sentencing it was revealed by the judge that Hing once paid $15,000 a month to San Mateo county officials to operate his "Cabbage Patch" club.

In connection with sentencing Hing for income tax evasion, Judge Murphy said that, "He (Hing) paid $15,000 to San Mateo county officials to operate there."

The federal judge did not elaborate on the remark. Speaking out of court, however, Assistant United States Attorney Macklin Fleming said that Hing did pay the $15,000 monthly.

Hing, an Oakland Chinese who once rang gambling clubs in San Mateo, Oakland, Watsonville, Bakersfield, Santa Cruz, Santa Rosa, Marysville and San Pablo, will spend 10 years in federal prison.

Hing has been tried twice on the two-count indictment. His first trial, which lasted nine weeks, resulted in a hung jury.

The gambler was ordered to pay all costs of his prosecution, amounting to about $6000. The judge asserted that, "if you survive this ordeal, I recommend to the attorney general that you be deported immediately."

Two liens against the San Mateo property holdings of Hing were placed Sept. 2 by federal attorneys during the trial. County Recorder Ruth Kirste said the liens were filed against the income property of Chin Lim Mou, known as Chin Bok Hing, for $798, $133.67 in one instance and against Chin Wong Chee in a second lien for $708,-186.39.

"The Cabbage Patch" was granted a license as a social club and card room on Oct. 16, 1948, by the San Mateo county tax office.

Sheriff's deputies who inspected the premises said that $20,000 had been invested in the club, located at 910 Market street. There were 11 licensed card tables.

Judge Murphy said of Hing, "I consider you an immoral, vicious man." He mentioned that Hing is under indictment for violation with the trading with the enemy act in connection with the aiding of the illegal transfer of American dollars from individuals in this country to persons in Red China.

$44,000 MORE TAX MONEY TO DALY CITY

City taxes were mailed out this week on 7630 pieces of property and will bring in $253,433.67 revenue to Daly City, more than $44,000 above last year's figure.

Value of property taxable after exemptions this year was $18,431,775, substantially higher than the $16,138,364 on which taxes were levied the previous year.

Total valuation of property in Daly City this year before exemptions was $21,128,065, almost $3,000,000 more than was recorded for 1951-52.

Tax bills received run about 10 cents higher per hundred dollar assessed valuation due to the rate increase.

Taxes may be paid in installments, the first becoming delinquent Dec. 5, the second April 20.

Plans Readied For Homecoming At San Mateo College

Plans are progressing rapidly at San Mateo Junior college for the homecoming program being made for the two days of November 14 and 15. The queen will be selected this week, and one of the judges in the final contest will be Bob Mathias, star Stanford athlete. All alumni are being urged to return to the college for the homecoming program.

Homecoming committee members are headed by Dick Valladao of Half Moon Bay and Jerry Preston of Belmont as co-chairmen. Another committee member from outside San Mateo and Burlingame is Nina Riley of Millbrae.

In an election held just ahead of the national voting the students favored General Eisenhower for the presidency, giving him a 2½ vote to one over Stevenson.

The college a cappella choir sang at the recent Rotary convention in Santa Cruz. The group made the trip by school bus and sang five numbers under the direction of Fredric Roehr, the instructor. The 33-voice choir is now working on Christmas programs and has already accepted six invitations to sing for various meetings.

The college drama department has selected John Patrick's comedy, "Lo and Behold" as the term play to be staged in January. Melvin Ellett is the faculty director.

The Matean gridders end their trevaling for this season with a game at Modesto Junior college this Friday night. The final two games will be played at home. San Mateo lost a 6-2 game at Santa Rosa last Friday night. Ron Del Bianco of South San Francisco, fullback, was one of the men to tackle the Santa Rosan behind his goal line for the two points.

LININGS GIVE FIRST

The phrase "brake linings are designed to wear out" is one that puzzles many motorists, according to the National Automobile Club. Explanation lies in the fact that since something must wear when two surfaces come together the lining is chosen in preference to metal parts that cost more.

County Chest Head Calls on Volunteers To Renew Efforts

County campaign chairman, Edward E. Keller, today called upon the thousands of Community Chest volunteer workers throughout the county to vigorously renew their efforts and to complete their contacts as quickly as possible.

It was hoped the goal of $376,040.00 could be reached by the end of October. Only one city thus far has reached its quota. Emerald Lake exceeded their goal before the close of October.

Keller pointed to the confusion that apparently exists by residents of San Mateo county, who work in San Francisco, and have contributed to their United Crusade, believing a part of their gift would be directed to their home community. This is not the case, however, Keller said. Only a contribution given directly to the Community Chest here will benefit its 22 Red Feather agencies.

Another county-wide report meeting for all divisions of the campaign has been called for Wednesday evening, Nov. 12, starting with a dinner at the new YMCA in San Mateo. Keller said a campaign cabinet meeting has been called for Thursday afternoon, Nov. 6, at Chest Headquarters to discuss plans for the successful conclusion of the campaign.

Monday Is Deadline For Feline Show

Daly City cat fanciers were reminded today that Monday, Nov. 10, will be the deadline for entries in the sixth annual all-breed show of the Golden Gate Cat Club. A major event in feline society west of the Mississippi, the show will be held in Oakland Civic Auditorium on Nov. 29 and 30.

Three specialty shows — the Western Tabby and Tortie Specialty, the Northwestern Siamese Breeders Specialty and the Solid Color Club of the West Specialty—will take place in conjunction with this year's all-breed event.

Show manager Dorothy Denning reported, however, that although blue-bloods will dominate the proceedings they will not have a complete monopoly. She said that a special classification has been set up for common household cats, in which the Cinderella of almost any alley conceivably could win top honors for looks, poise or personality. Competitions also will be held for kittens and for decorated cages.

Daly City residents interested in entering their pets in the show are asked to communicate with Mrs. Denning at P. O. Box 83, Castro Valley. Information also can be obtained by telephoning Mrs. Veda Van Holten (GLencourt 1-5184), Mrs. Marion Beller (Sweetwood 8-7860) and Mrs. Isabel Meader (LUcerne 2-0565.)

CHECK CAR'S CONDITION

See that the mechanical condition of your car is right, advises the National Automobile Club. Worn or damaged tires, faulty brakes, or a defective steering wheel mechanism can turn a careful driver into a highway menace.

Knowledge is Power

(1) It wasn't Henry Ford, as many people believe. Ford revolutionized the automobile manufacturing industry; but he did not invent the automobile. The inventor was Siegfried Marcus, a German-born Austrian, who drove his first car on April 9, 1865. He is not well known partly because of the Nazis, writes Ken W. Purdy in his book, "The Kings of the Road." Because Marcus was a Jew, the Nazis tried to destroy all evidence of his connection with the automobile.

(2) The butterfly, states Alan Devoe in American Mercury magazine. Flitting from one blossoming spray to another, the butterfly makes use of a taste faculty so fantastically subtle that no animal performance in the most exotic jungle is more amazing. That butterfly in your backyard can detect the presence of sugar in a mixture of one part to 300,000.

(3) In Boyaca, Colombia, Padre Joaquin Salcedo is teaching more than 7,000 peasants to read and write through short-wave radio programs beamed to the almost inaccessible mountain villages of Colombia. A picture story in the September Catholic Digest describes his methods.

When his new short-wave transmitting station is completed the radio priest will reach more than 100,000 people. The programs teach the elements of reading and writing. Religious subjects are limited to a half-hour sermon on Sundays. National history, agriculture, sanitation, music, courtesy, and civic obligations are taught as the pupils progress.

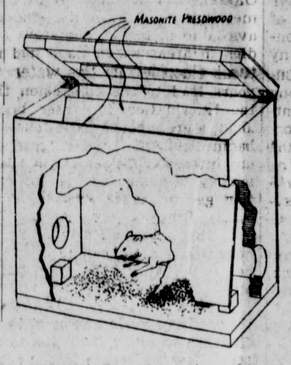
ONE OF THE MANY new stores that recently opened in the Westlake Town and Country Shopping Center, is the Westlake Liquors, owned and operated by Stan Cobenz. With completion of the western addition to the shopping center, a variety of new establishments will be able to serve the rapid growing Westlake section of Daly City.

Handy Jim's FIXIN-UP TIPS For Farm and Home

Safe Rat Bait Holder

THE farmer can make a rat bait holder that is inexpensive and also safe for cats and dogs around the place. As illustrated, the poisoned bait is accessible only to the rodents, who enter and leave the self-feeder through 2-inch holes at floor level.

Used in the construction are ends and bottom of 1-inch by 6-inch lumber. The front, back and slanting partition are Masonite ⅛" Tempered Presdwood. The hinged top is a framework of 1-inch by 2-inch lumber covered with Presdwood.



Dimensions of the rat bait holder are 18 inches wide, 16 inches high and 6 inches deep.

To keep out rats from buildings having breaks in walls or floors, Joseph De Fiore, Chicago exterminator who is president of the Illinois Pest Control Association, uses pieces of Masonite ¼" Tempered Presdwood. He simply attaches a panel an inch or two larger than the hole to be covered, using screws applied through drilled holes. He claims the material apparently isn't palatable to rodents, for he has had no complaints of its being gnawed through since he began using it several years ago.

National Commander Of DAV Visits San Mateo

National Commander Floyd L. Ming, commander of the National Disabled American Veterans attended the annual dinner and ceremonies of Edmund Parrott chapter No. 16 last Friday evening. This was the first time in history that a national commander of a veterans organization has been present for any veterans events in the county.

It was a distinct honor being paid to the local chapter owing to it's outstanding growth and achievements. Commander Ming is a resident of Bakersfield and has just returned from a trip to Europe where he dedicated a cemetery.

Mrs. Kay Ming, who is state commander of the DAV auxiliary, accompanied the commander.

50,000 Veterans Entitled to Money For Prison Time

Some 50,000 World War II veterans who are entitled to payments of $1.50 a day for time spent as war prisoners under forced labor or inhumane conditions haven't yet filed for their compensation, Floyd D. Granger, Veterans Service Officer of San Mateo County, reported today.

He said the U. S. War Claims Commission is now sending out checks to veterans who have filed for the $1.50 a day pay authorized by Congress in the War Claims Act of 1952. The commission has received claims from about 80,000 of an estimated 132,000 ex-servicemen who are eligible for the compensation.

Granger pointed out that the new payment is in addition to earlier compensation of $1 a day paid to World War I veterans who suffered substandard diets while in enemy hands.

Claim forms for the new payments have been mailed by the commission to all former prisoners of war who filed for the first POW payment, the service officer added.

"Apparently some veterans think they aren't eligible for the new payment of $1.50 a day because they were previously paid an allowance for the time they spent as prisoners on substandard diets," Granger commented. Some veterans may not have received claim forms, he added, because of

The Circus Has Left Town

All the bunting is being torn down and the tons of placards, billboards, leaflets and other political media read like last week's newspaper.

A lot of empty words have flown effusively from the mouths of both factions and a lot of animosity has been stirred up which, for some, might never be undone.

Politics, even before the "log cabin and hard cider" campaigns, has been a game which the American loves to play. But now all the din and clangor is over and the job must be done. The people have seen their "gladiators" in the ring, and the circus has left town.

The real job is now facing Dwight D. Eisenhower, who, probably after his term is up, will perceive that Stevenson was probably the luckier of the two in the outcome of the race.

For Eisenhower has received the faith of the American people. They cannot live on the joys of that election night when they saw their man come in.

Now they want to see those things brought about that made them cast their vote for him.

And their order is not a small one. They want an intelligent policy that will gain us allies instead of enemies, that will make other nations economically independent instead of resentful almstakers. They want an honorable end to the Korean conflict and a firm policy against red nations—a policy that will command Communist respect instead of scorn.

And the "man in the street," that is, Mr. Everyday Citizen, the man who is usually claimed by the Democrats, would like to see waste and extravagance in government put to an end, along with the corruption that usually brings it about. He would like to take home more of his pay, and would like to see that pay buy more bread and butter for him and his family. And he would like to make taxation fair—he's a little weary of reading about the million-or-more-a-year boys who pay, by subtle manipulations, less taxes proportionately than he does. And this man, who in reality represents the nation, has said that Mr. Eisenhower is the answer to his problems.

It's a big order, but Mr. Eisenhower has won the honor of attempting to deliver it. But you are only a hero today, Mr. Eisenhower—you are president for four years.

Chamber of Commerce Gets Shot in the Arm

Daly City's Chamber of Commerce is being revived and that event could mean a lot of advantages to Daly City.

Just a few of the things an on-the-ball Chamber of Commerce could do here are: Work for some solution to the parking meter problem; Disseminate information on Daly City and let the surrounding area know that there's a great future before it; Sponsor civic activities to give the city a "shot in the arm"; Arrange for decorations around town on holidays; Compile statistical information about the city that would be available to interested persons, i.e., prospective businesses or home owners; and many others.

Communities smaller than Daly City have chambers of commerce that would put past organizations of this type here to shame.

There have bene numerous attempts here in the past to organize groups that would act as a stimulus to community business and activity.

In the past, however, they have all fallen flat.

We hope that the group now revitalizing the chamber here will continue in their efforts until their dream of an active Chamber of Commerce is reached. We also hope that the merchants of this city will see fit to help bring this about.

Bouquets for Recreation Department's Parties

Plaudits are due the recreation department and all the organizations which helped sponsor the Halloween parties for the children of Daly City.

This type of Halloween entertainment is not only wholesome but helps channel the energy of youngsters—the energy that might otherwise turn into acts of vandalism and harmful pranks that give headaches to property owners and only a fleeting revelry to the damage-doers.

Success of the parties was such that the police department reported one of the quietest Halloweens here on record.

A need to keep children off the streets was more starkly brought out by the serious injury which befell a five-year-old child, who was struck by a car while out celebrating Halloween here.

The recreation department has proved they have a good thing, both for the community's elders and youngsters, and we hope they can continue to bring bigger and better such activities in the future.

Speaker Seeks Background Material for Talk

Them bones, them bones, them dry bones—that was the question perplexing even the most archeologically-minded RECORD staff members this week.

For the second time during the past month, a petite young voice asked THE RECORD to do some bone sleuthing.

It seems the little lady wanted to give a report to her class at Westlake. The subject was to be some anonymous bones found in the Westlake area by male members of her class. The description of the bones given to this paper was that they were "small bones, with some things that look like tooths," (sic). With that scientific data THE RECORD'S problem was to identify the remains for the caller.

Perhaps some academic citizen could help us out of this quandry. But don't ask to see the bones. The little girl informed us they were disposed of long ago.

Wars Still Here But So Are Peace Hopes

A good many people may wonder why Armistice Day continues to be observed. On the face of it, it seems silly to hail a victory that is no longer a victory or celebrate the end of the war that was to end wars—but didn't.

Well if Armistice Day were looked upon only in that light it would be silly to remember it. But despite the bitter disappointments the years have brought since November 11, 1918, the hope for peace is no less strong today than it was on that eventful day 34 years ago when the dream of the ages seemed to have been achieved.

Armistice Day was intended to mark the attainment of peace. History, Hitler and humanity changed that. Now Armistice Day symbolizes the continuing search for a world in which man will abide by the Sermon on the Mount and the simple rule of peace: "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

Even to hope for such a world does, at times, seem futile. But we can no more stop that hope than we can halt the rising of the sun. And just as certainly as the sun will rise tomorrow morning, just as certainly will that world of peace be achieved some day.

Business Knows Newspapers Still Lead the Way

Radio and television have grown enormously over the years, but the newspaper remains the backbone of most advertising campaigns.

This isn't just our opinion, but the view expressed at the Financial Public Relations Association at their Coronado convention last week. The association represents some 1,600 progressive banks throughout the United States which spend millions of dollars annually on advertising.

What makes the expression of this view more convincing is the fact that it is borne out in practice. Many financial institutions have centered their advertising campaigns around the newspapers for many years. They continue to do so.

We think that this preference for the newspaper by these hard headed business men who put their advertising dollars where they feel it will do them the most good, speaks for itself.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Record welcomes any letter on any event of public, or private interest. These letters are published at no expense to the writer. There are just two requirements: the letters must be signed, and must be within the laws of libel. We hope readers will show enough interest in their city to occasionally "sound off;" for the purpose of this column is to give you, the reader, a chance to express an opinion.

President of Oakland Junior Chamber Explains "Throwing-out" of Mrs. Franzen

Dear Sir:

It has been called to my attention at this late date that on September 18, 1952, your newspaper printed a letter from Mrs. Hugo Franzen, an opponant to fluoridation. In this letter Mrs. Franzen stated: "And last night I was thrown out of a Junior Chamber of Commerce propaganda meeting to form a Dental Health Committee to put over fluoridation at Oakland. Nice people, Huh?"

To correct the impression given by this statement and to more fully explain the activities of the Oakland Junior Chamber of Commerce in regard to this issue, I should like to review the record of this organization's participation in the fluoride problem.

Early in 1951 the Oakland Junior Chamber of Commerce undertook a study as to the desirability of the fluoridation of water supplies that do not presently contain this element. The facts on this question were presented to the organization by advocates of both sides. As a result of this study this organization decided to support fluoridation of the local water supply as an inexpensive method of reducing the number of cavities in teeth. A similar conclusion has been reached by many other organizations that have conducted independent studies. Among these are the California Parent-Teachers Association, the California State Dental Association, the American Dental Association, the United States Public Health Service, the American Medical Association, and numerous other reputable organizations.

On November 2, 1951, the Oakland Junior Chamber of Commerce at its regular meeting conducted a panel discussion on fluoridation. Present to lead the panel and to answer questions were Dr. David Ast, chief health officer, state of New York, Dr. John B. Benedektson, now president of the California State Dental Association, Dr. Lloyd Richards of the California Health Service, dental section, and Mr. Edward Reinke, chief secretary engineer for the state of California.

This meeting was also attended by several prominent city officials of various East Bay cities, and the meeting was open to all other persons interested in the problem. Mrs. Franzen was present at this meeting, and she was allowed to present her views on the subject. She made numerous charges against fluoridation similar to those which appeared in her letter to you.

In September of this year an invitation meeting was called to discuss the best methods of presenting the case for fluoridation to the people in order to win its adoption. This was not a meeting to discuss the merit of the issue inasmuch as all the people invited had already been convinced of its desirability and had decided to form an organization to promote this cause. Mrs. Franzen was not invited to this meeting.

Mrs. Franzen was politely asked to leave, and not as intimated in her letter "thrown out."

It is still the position of the Oakland Junior Chamber of Commerce that all scientific evidence available including numerous studies in areas which have had natural fluorides in the water for years lead to the conclusion that the fluoridation of water brings about a great benefit and causes no hadmful effects. We suggest that any interested citizen of your community desiring further information get in touch with the California State Dental Association, or if this is too much trouble then he should ask his own dentist what he thinks about the fluoridation of water.

I wish to thank you very much for the opportunity you have afforded me to reply to the remarks Mrs. Franzen has made on this subject.

Very truly yours,
Joseph J. Ternes,
President, Oakland Junior Chamber of Commerce

Community Chest President Expresses Appreciation to RECORD for Coverage

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

I wish to take this opportunity of expressing to you our appreciation for the remarkable cooperation that you have given us through your columns, before and during our Community Chest campaign. We have had extraordinary coverage. The last week or so, between politics and bond issues, we have had a problem in getting adequate coverage. No doubt, after elections the situation will be relieved somewhat. We have not been sending out sufficient material so we are probably somewhat at fault.

I am sure you recognize what an influence your newspaper is in your area, as a matter of fact, it is the major public relation medium that we have to lean upon. No doubt you are also aware of the tremendous job that we have to do in order to inspire our residents to fulfill their obligations to the 22 chest agencies, and subscribing to the large quota of $376,000.

Kindest personal regards,
G. O. Smallcomb, Pres.,

Del Wilson Says Writer on Center Is Confused -- Completion Is Worthy Cause

Dear Editor:

In last week's RECORD, Mr. Paul Thomas wrote an article showing how confused he is on the subject of the War Memorial center.

In July, 1947, I supported a bond issue to erect this building, which was ostensibly for the use of both adults and children, in recreation and civic affairs.

There is a worthy cause to be sought for in passing a bond issue to complete the project. As it stands now, it is costing the taxpayers money without being of actual value to the community.

The state would probably refuse to allow children to attend any classes in an uncompleted building. It is exceedingly dangerous due to traffic on Hillside boulevard and Mission street.

I believe it is unwise not to finish this project and I believe we can come to some agreement for its use after completion. It costs from $2,000 to $3,000 for each election, which, to date, has been a waste of taxpayers' money.

I have always supported school bonds, but recreation for children is just as important.

The people of Daly City have $304,000 invested in this building and as yet have seen no great value to the community come from it.

Then why debate over the possibility of using it for classes until the building is completed. A city of our size desperately needs a community center for many reasons—mainly to benefit children, but must we deprive veterans, adults and others from recreation?

A memorial center is of unlimited value to any community. When it is completed (and I hope it will be soon). The people of Daly City will realize what this additional facility can mean to their children and to themselves.

Now Mr. Thomas, I do agree with you on the cost of this project, but please consider $304,000 and the taxes we must pay. We all make mistakes but we also learn by those mistakes.

Del C. Wilson

VOTERS THANKED FOR "YES" ON WATER BOND

Arthur J. Bodien, head of the water department here, this week expressed his sincere appreciation to all those who helped pass the city water bonds at last week's election.

"Passage of the water bonds was truly an advancement in progress for Daly City," Bodien said. "The money made available will go a long way toward improvement of water facilities in Daly City," he added.

Colma Man Is Cited For Court Contempt

Perry Pratt of Colma was sentenced to five days in the county jail by Judge Thomas L. Bocci Jr. after he had asserted before Bocci that he could not "get justice here" and "this is nothing but a kangaroo court."

Bocci ruled contempt of court in the disturbance. He later lowered the sentence to one day in jail—the time already spent by Pratt in custody.

Pratt, who is suing John C. Crowley, 343 Sierra Point road, Brisbane, for back rent on his house, got impatient during the hearing before Bocci and "began causing a commotion," according to the Judge. Neither Crowley nor Pratt were represented by attorneys.

Christmas Checks Will Go to 2100 Here

An early sign of Christmas season's approach, the distribution of Bank of America Christmas Club checks to 2100 residents of Daly City was disclosed today by D. D. Harris and J. Ferrari, branch managers here.

Harris said that the end-of-the-year checks are being sent out Nov. 15, earlier than in previous years, in order to beat seasonal mail and shopping rushes. Bank of America will distribute 300,000 checks totalling $33,000,000 to club members throughout California this year, according to the branch manager. It is a new record for savings programs of this kind.

Christmas checks receive a warm welcome from the club members, who, as a result, are better able to meet year-end financial obligations and to help Santa Claus fill the children's Yuletide stockings, Harris said. He added that enrollments for the 1953 Christmas Club are now being accepted at the bank.

Theodore Wagner To Return Home

WITH THE 25th INFANTRY DIV. IN KOREA—Pfc. Theodore E. Wagner of 540 C street, Colma, is returning to the U. S. from Korea under the Army's rotation program after 10 months of duty in the combat area.

He served in the 25th Infantry Division, now the senior American division on the peninsula. It landed in July, 1950, shortly after the Communists atacked the Republic of South Korea.

Private First Class Wagner, who holds the Combat Infantryman Badge, served as a rifleman in the division's 5th Infantry Regiment.

A 1948 graduate of San Francisco State college, he entered the Army in June, 1949. Wagner lives in Colma with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mansfield.

Local Merchants In NAMA Credit Plan

Three local businesses have joined the North American Merchants' association, a group that makes it possible for any major oil company credit card holder to use this card on a member's premises for credit purchases.

Local member organizations in the NAMA are: O'Brien's Quality Clothing, Lee's Drugs and Daly City Hardware.

All the customer with an oil credit card has to do is present it to a NAMA member and purchase anything up to $100. They receive a single bill consolidating all of their purchases through NAMA members.

The pumper, only one of its kind in Northern California, was purchased by the department recently at a cost of $23,000.

SIGNALLING OR GESTURING?

It's nice to wave to friends when you're driving by, but the California State Automobile Association says it's safest to make sure your gesture is not mistaken for a signal that you intend to stop or turn.

SEQUEL ON THE SEAGULL

By RIDGELY CUMMINGS

Some months ago the Seagull from Sweden donned her specially invented walking-sleeping bag and headed for the watermelon country.

That was early in the summer and her departure was duly reported in this space.

Now it is time for a sequel.

Latest word from this beautiful blonde actress is that she is en route to the state of Chiapas in the southernmost part of Mexico to learn how to live on air.

The Seagull is 24 but she looks five years older because she has heavy laugh crinkles at the outer corners of her eyes. She is out in the sun a great deal, being a devotee of the simple life, and declines to wear sun glasses or a hat or anything else which might become excess baggage.

Her hair is bleached by the weather until it has acquired a pale color midway between silver and gold. She wears it parted on the side and it ripples in waves which frequently fall over one eye, something like the locks of Veronica Lake in the old days when she was playing a tough little tramp in "Girls Of The Road."

The Seagull came to Hollywood nearly a year ago. The daughter of a wealthy architect in Stockholm, she studied medicine and played small parts in Swedish movies before coming here.

While waiting for studio recognition she enrolled in a dramatic school and went to previews and opening nights in a sky blue evening gown, an off-the-shoulder affair with one rhinestone strap. That gown and all her other worldly possessions except the walking-sleeping bag and a typewriter are now packed away in storage but there was a time when she was the most striking woman in Hollywood.

Her figure is full blown and mature. With her vivid blue eyes, laughing and full of animal lights, her quick-changing expressions, her pale hair and tanned skin she is a technicolor dream.

Her nickname derives from Chekov's play, "The Seagull," in which she did the feminine lead, making it a thing of sensitive beauty to be long remembered.

The Seagull had acquired a good agent, studio connections and promises of movie roles when she suddenly threw up everything to "discover her soul" in the watermelon country.

The watermelon country, which sounded like a mythical haven for questing roamers, turned out to be Lodi, California. She was reticent about her adventures there but a month later she turned up at Lake Tahoe, where she built herself a raft from driftwood and spent long hours paddling from the California to the Nevada side and back, refusing offers of tows from admiring young men in speedboats.

Then came brief and cryptic messages from Reno, Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver, B. C. Early in the fall she returned to Southern California and settled in a beach bungalow at Santa Monica, refusing to come to Hollywood or Los Angeles because of "the unclean air."

But even life on the beach at Santa Monica was too complicated for her so with several kindred spirits she took off again. Here is the latest word:

"In a Model A somewhere in Mexico. Even if the typewriter behaves like it has chorea—that's the dancing disease—because I just now in front of me can overlook something some people call a road while I without any doubt must call it a pathway, it would be a good idea to be tied to the seat with some real heavy rope instead of getting cramps in hands and feet.

"That's what I am up against if we just don't count all the sudden stops that have to be made to let a pig, jackass, or cow over the road. Believe me they take their time and if they decide to remain on the road the rest of their lives—and let their children and grandchildren grow up and die there too—there is nothing we can do about it except wait. Ja, they are really independent.

" . . . My decision to continue to Mexico came so suddenly, I just couldn't stand that smoggy hole where even you have to live. . . . There is no life whatsoever but just destructive things can come out of it.

"Coming down here you really will have something to work with. These wonderful people, so honest and simple, who gladly share their last tortilla with you and haven't forgotten how to smile, live and work exactly as in the olden time—with treeplows and oxen, living in grass huts and travelling on donkeys. It is so relaxing to look at them.

"I am going to the state of Chiapas which is as close to the real tropics as it is possible to get and why is something you would ask me. It is a long story but along the same lines as before.

"I am going to live up in the mountains completely natural not because of the fun of it but because I believe that that is the only way to solve the questions about how we started and what will happen—why we for example do such an unnatural thing as die.

"We are going to see not only what changes take place in a human body when living just on the juices of fruits—but also see what will happen when we have overcome the necessity of all food whatsoever including even water.

"If we remember, everything before it became liquid or solid was a gas and through evaporation everything goes back to gases, we from that understand that all the elements required for living are in the air.

"I don't mean the air around Los Angeles or in cities in general and that's why I went away from it.

"In the tropics where the vegetation is so rich, so alive, it would be an easy thing to live on air.

"Of course that's not the only thing I want to accomplish but only a step toward something else I have in mind. . . . I am sure the more we can abandon these physical requirements, the more we gain in the spiritual. Through meditation I will one day know the answer. . . .

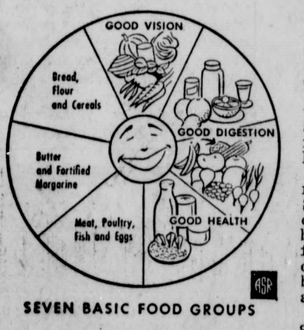
"There is nothing in so-called civilized life that can make me satisfied. If you could for example mention any science or any idea concerning that life which has been of any benefit for the human being I should go back and find out. Medical science certainly is an evil institution and all those inventions which have made life comfortable for us have a spoiling effect on our whole system.

"Whatever happens, if there is anybody alive after the coming war, they perhaps will have a real reason to go back to Mother Nature."

That is the latest word from the Seagull. She is one of the great souls of our era and her story is far from complete. The world is richer for people like this.

Food Sense—Not Nonsense

Are you a follower of the food faddists? Do you listen to their blasts on the airlanes? Are you influenced by the suggestions of their printed messages? Are you buying their nostrums and gimmicks which are being offered you in scores of ways?



SEVEN BASIC FOOD GROUPS

Doctors, nutritionists, Government authorities and others concerned with the public welfare continue to be disturbed over the influence of these faddists. To counteract it, the public is being assured by authoritative sources that a varied, balanced diet of available foods will provide the nutrients necessary for buoyant health.

In order to simplify the planning of nutritious meals, the Seven Basic Food Groups were developed, as an easy-to-follow blueprint. Those who choose foods from each group daily, regularly obtain protective foods that help build sturdy bodies, make minds alert, and produce quick energy.

Featured in the seven food groups are: Meat, fish and eggs for muscle-building protein, essential vitamins and minerals; milk and milk products for calcium as well as protein; bread, flour and cereals (enriched or whole grain) for three B vitamins — niacin, thiamine, riboflavin—and iron, in addition to energy-sparking carbohydrates; butter and margarine for vitamin A and concentrated food energy.

To simplify selection, the fruit and vegetable families are divided three ways: Green and yellow vegetables, high in vitamin A, iron and other essentials for growth, energy and health; oranges, grapefruit, tomatoes, raw cabbage and salad greens, rich in vitamin C (the seasonal fruits, strawberries, and cantaloup and some others also are high in this important vitamin). The popular group which includes potatoes, beets, onions, corn, and other vegetables, and pears, apples, bananas, pineapple and other fruits, lends variety to meals and help round out the dietary needs.

By including foods from these three fruit and vegetable groups every day the diet tally will show that all the required vitamin C has been included; about ⅔ of the vitamin A; ⅓ of the iron, niacin and thiamine; and ⅛ of the calcium and riboflavin. Because of their carbohydrate content they furnish a significant part of the energy requirement.

Known as "protective" foods, these fruits and vegetables help build a defense against disease and infections, provide roughage and are an aid to good vision. Items from each one of the three groups, as well as from the other four of the basic seven must be eaten each day to assure a diet that is adequate, nourishing and health building.

FREEWAYS APPROVED BY CALIFORNIA CLUB

Freeways got overwhelming approval in a report prepared by the city planning section of the Commonwealth Club of California, just released.

The section, by a margin of seven to one, decided that modern, limited access highways have provided the services for which they were built; that cooperation between local city, county and state officials is imperative on selection of routes; and that benefits to the public at large from freeways far outweighs cases of individual hardship.

The section group also concluded that compensation to property owners in connection with freeways has been fair and reasonable, and that staututory provisions governing compensation for property owners are adequate.

Halloween Festivities Success at OLPH Church

Halloween night was certainly a field day, or rather night, for small, medium and large fry at Our Lady of Perpetual Help school auditorium. Just about every conceivable idea was used to transform the aforementioned frys to some other being.

There were Topsey and Eva, bums from the railroad yards, characters with backside trailors, both male and female, gypsys, pirates, fat men, maids, clowns, Indians, washerwomen, cowboys, and last, but by no means least, a buck-toothed character seemingly from another planet.

Pandemonium reigned while a small boy attempted to sing "They Told Us We Were Too Young." By process of elimination prizes were awarded for the funniest, and most original get-ups.

It was a night long to be remembered by those who can say, "I was there."

NEARLY 3000 DALY CITY CHILDREN ENJOY HALLOWEEN PARTY ACTIVITIES

Kids Enjoy Ice Cream; View Amateur Talent

Between 2000 and 3000 children of Daly City took the opportunity to celebrate Halloween at the parties sponsored by the local PTAs and the Recreation department. The children had a merry time participating in peanut rolling contests, paper blowing contests, donut eating contests and a variety of other games and stunts.

The highlight of the evening was, of course, the free ice cream donated by the Recreation department and served by the PTA members. In addition to the ice cream, the children enjoyed some fine amateur talent and saw some dazzling costumes in the costume parades.

The party at Grace Presbyterian church hall was attended by 300 fun-loving clowns and goblins. About 450 children attended the OLPH party.

SF Hospital Rates To Take Sharp Increase

San Franciscans may expect an increase in local hospital rates amounting to $1.50 or $2 a day sometime this month.

Announcement of the increase was made this week by Walter M. Oliver, president of the San Francisco Hospital Conference.

Oliver said the increase was due to added hospital operating costs resulting from higher wages and other benefits granted hospital employees in collective bargaining negotiations now in progress.

"As no hospital could possibly absorb these higher operating costs, each hospital, as it feels their impact, will raise its rates to reflect the added costs," Oliver said.

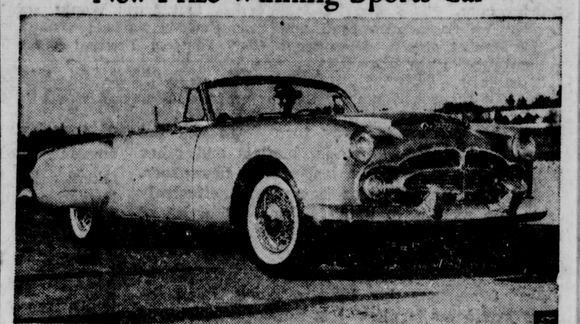
New Prize-Winning Sports Car



Packard's prize-winning Pan American custom sports convertible, engineered as a completely roadable car, will be the center attraction at Motorama, Los Angeles, custom car show, to be held in the Pan Pacific Auditorium November 10-16.

Driver Mike Kollins, is shown as he began a test track run, during which he drove the Pan American over 100 miles an hour. Officials said that while no plans are ready to put the car into production, with the sharp increase in public interest in custom cars Packard will enter the field if a substantial market appears ready.

The Pan American is only 37 inches high to the top of the door, and is 221 inches long. An extremely low center of gravity permits the car to corner at high speeds. Air scoop on the bonnet is both functional and a styling feature. Chrome, minimized on the car, is used only to accent forms of body sections. Automatic no-shift transmission and power brakes on the Pan American are also available as optional equipment on regular Packard models. The car is powered by a modified Packard "Thunderbolt" engine which has increased horsepower.

Woodrow Wilson PTA Salvage Drive Ends; Mrs. Watson, Winters Win With 128 Lbs.

Results of the salvage drive were revealed recently by the Woodrow Wilson PTA. Winners were Mrs. J. Watson and Mrs. Winters, bringing in 128 pounds each. Total amount collected for all rooms was 1657 pounds, making the drive a success, according to officials.

The membership campaign has ended with a total of 514 new members joining the PTA during the drive. However, persons wishing to join may still do so.

At the Oct. 21 meeting 85 members were in attendance, along with 22 teachers. The meeting was opened with the pledge of allegiance to the flag, led by Mrs. M. Cook.

A short business meeting was followed by a talk by Inspector Paul B. Jenson from the San Mateo county sheriff's office. He spoke on the subject of narcotics. He illustrated his talk with a display of different types of narcotics and some of the equipment used in administering narcotics. He said the narcotic situation is not too serious in the county, but, nevertheless, could not be ignored. He said there were some 300 cases of narcotics users between the ages of 16 and 26.

One of the fourth grade classes entertained the group with folk dances.

H. Z. Weibel, superintendent of the elementary school district, spoke on the bond issues, proposition 2 and 24, and recommended their passage. At the close of the meeting members enjoyed coffee and pie.

"What Cub Scouting Is" Title of Movie, Lecture Given at Pack 84 Meeting

The October 23rd meeting of Pack 84 featured a film strip and lecture by Art Slinde, San Mateo county northern district executive, Boy Scouts of America. The strip was entitled "What Cub Scouting Is." It explained the place of Cub Scouting as an aid to a better integration of family life in cooperative work and play.

Slinde stated that the Cub Scout program is designed not for boys, but for families, and that one answer to the problems of living together is doing things together. The entire program of activities of the Boy Scouts is to give boys experience in elementary citizenship.

Pack 84 was organized in 1950 principally because of the efforts of Mrs. Adelaide Mattison, 1779 Sweetwood Drive, Broadmoor. Mrs. Mattison, who has recently resigned from active participation, was presented a fountain pen set in memory of her two years of tireless effort on behalf of the boys of Broadmoor.

It was announced that the next meeting will be on Nov. 20 at the Presbyterian church auditorium in Broadmoor. The pack has now outgrown the Broadmoor Community Center! Growth of the pack has been so fast, in fact, that the Boy Scouts of America have made a special award for "Increased Membership in 1952."

The following boys received awards:

Bear Badges: Bob Goodwin, Jimmy Heick, Bobbie Braun, Albert Randall, Don Harris.

KNOWING THE KNOCKS

It pays to be familiar with different types of bearing knocks, points out the National Automobile Club. If the noise is a light knock and occurs at high speeds or when the engine is pulling heavily the chances are that it is a connecting rod bearing. A main bearing makes a heavy thumping noise that can be heard when the speed of the engine is low.

TWO TIPS ON BATTERY CARE

If water is spilled on top of the battery when the cells are filled, wipe it off immediately, advises the National Automobile Club. Unless this simple step is taken, the water will cause the terminals to corrode. An additional precaution against corrosion is the occasional application of vaseline to the terminals. Oil will help, but it lacks the effectiveness of vaseline for this particular purpose.

HONEYWELL AMASSES 159 YARDS BY RUSHING; BOCKWINKEL SCORES THREE OF TEAMS TDs

The Jefferson high grid machine started clicking last week against Palo Alto, scoring six touchdowns to down the Palo Alto Vikings, 40-20.

The Indians came into the second half with a 13-13 tie, but two rampaging backs, Nick Bockwinkel and Wally Honeywell soon put the Viking on the short end of things by chewing up large chunks of yardage via the ground.

49 Yard Run

In the opening quarter Honeywell scored the first TD for the locals with a 49 yeard run from scrimmage. He later broke away for a 55 yard romp and a touchdown which was called back because of an offsides penalty on the Jeffs.

Honeywell had a field day for himself, gaining 159 yards by rushing and taking one pass for 9 yards, bringing his day's total to 168 yards. His day's efforts in the rushing department were the best recorded this season by any PAL back in a single game. He amassed his 159 yards in 14 carries, giving him a better than eleven yards average per try.

Bockwinkel Gets Three

Bockwinkel contributed substantially to the Jeff win, scoring three touchdowns in the second half. He hit from three yards out, two yards out, and on his last score, from 12 yards out.

At one time the Jeffs were on their own five yard line and Bockwinkel carried the ball four successive times, bringing it up to the 45 yard line. In 19 attempts he packed the ball 93 yards from the line of scrimmage for an average of almost five yards per carry.

Blocked Kick

Dick Cryer got into the scoring by blocking a Palo Alto kick and returning it 15 yards for a TD. John Geertsen accounted for four Jeff points by kicking four conversions.

Ray Rosa, the player with the educated arm, passed to End Bill Butler for the other score. The play covered 42 yards in all.

Rosa's passing efforts of 113 yards for the day brought his season's total via the airline to 642 yards. Out of 89 passes thrown, he has completed 47, which gives him a 53 per cent completion record, one of the highest in the league. He has also heaved four touchdown passes.

Reserves Score

After the Jeff regulars had the Palo Alto game sewed up, the second and third string was called in and scored within six plays.

Jim Galindo, 160 pound third string left end, proved his mettle as linebacker in the Paly contest. Coach Joe McGrath said Galindo will probably hold down the spot on a full-time basis until the former first-string linebacker can top his performance.

McGrath cited the efforts of Jim Madden, Vic Irons and Jack Thur as outstanding both on offensive and defensive line play.

The center of the line was responsible for opening up gaping holes for the Jeff backs to plunge through.

Squad Improves

The Jefferson squad seems to have jelled, after losing four straight games. However, they did make a couple of bobbles in the Palo Alto game which might have meant defeat against a stronger adversary. Offsides on their part was responsible for calling back a touchdown, and on one pass play a Viking intercepted and ran all the way for a touchdown because the backs weren't in position to defend against a stolen pass.

JEFFS SPLIT WITH BURLINGAME; 20s STILL IN SECOND

Jefferson high's 20s knocked over Burlingame this week, 27-20, to remain in second spot in PAL standings, while the Jeff tens were defeated 19-16.

Forward Bill Marshall led the 20s with seven field goals, racking up 14 points, while Burlingame's Magnin and Sanders scored six points each to spark the Panthers' 10 victory.

Burlingame's 10 win was its sixth of the season, while Jeff's 20s also registered their sixth.

TUESDAY NITE BOWLING ALMOST ENDS IN ROW

The Daly-City Colma bowling league turned into a real donnybrook Tuesday night at Brentwood as tempers flared and fist-fights were narrowly averted.

Impetus for the bad feeling was the Daly City-Colma Lions two victories over Central Club, moving the latter into a tie for first place with Kings Market.

The Central Clubbers were getting heckled all over the place and some of the contestants took offense at the activities.

All was resolved, however, before the evening ended. Central Club, losing two to the Lions, now have 15 wins, 9 losses, which puts them in a tie for first with Kings, who have an identical record.

Tied for third are Daly City-Colma Lions, Vince & Fred's and Hilltop Cab, all with 14-10 records.

Paul Parpora of George's Theater Grill chalked up high individual game of 218 for the evening.

Babe DeLucca hit 564 for high individual series, bowling for Central Club.

Homes by Sterling racked up 902 for high team game, while high team series, 2569, was rolled by Hilltop Cab.

San Francisco Begins Tough Part Of Sked

San Francisco State, with four victories and two losses, hits the road this week for the toughest part of the schedule.

The Gators play San Diego State Saturday night in the Border City, oppose College of Idaho the following week in Caldwell and then finish Nov. 22 in Fresno against Fresno State.

San Francisco will be on the short end for every game.

487 Yards Net

The Gators rolled to 364 net through the air last week, while defeating Chico State's young but fast-improving team, 39-19.

San Francisco bogged in midseason, losing to Cal Poly and Santa Barbara, after five first string offensive and defensive men had been lost for the season. The men out for the year are Fullback Henry Marshall, Al Endriss, end and defensive safety now playing for the S. F. 49ers; Don Morettini, offensive guard; Frank Ginanni, offensive and defensive tackle, and Harley Felure, defensive halfback. In addition, Coach Joe Verducci has had from two to four men out of each game because of temporary ailments.

O'Shea to Fullback

Verducci shifted John O'Shea to fullback last week and started little Dick Nave, 5-6 and 160 pounds, at O'Shea's right halfback spot. O'Shea gained 90 yards in 22 cracks to run his season total to 597 in six games. He is the team's top mover for the year.

Nave was voted State's most valuable player against Chico.

The quick-cutting little belter raced for 158 yards on 16 cracks, including one 40 yard TD run. Verducci was impressed with the running of Harry Bremond, a defensive specialist, and George Harris, a freshman from King City. Bremond, Nave and Harris, are all short, stocky runners who take off quick and hit surprisingly hard.

Duncan Hits Nine

QB Maury Duncan threw 13 passes against Chico, completing nine for 123 yards and one touchdown. Duncan's seasonal total is 53 completions out of 105 tosses for a total of 933 yards.

The Gator scout report states that San Diego appeared stronger than Cal Poly, although the Mustangs won the game, 20-18. San Francisco played one of its better games against Cal Poly, but lost, 34-26. That makes San Diego a solid choice in this one.

San Francisco's offensive line averages 194 pounds per man while the defenders (including the two linebackers) average 201 pounds. This is big enough, but the Gators lost considerable speed and agility via injuries. The replacements are big but inexperienced.

State has top ends in Merrill Jacobs and George Wehner, who transferred from St. Mary's. Bob Foote, tackle transfer from College of Pacific, teams with State veterans Gene Anderson, tackle; Don Slates and George Zerkovich, guards and center Dick Amandoli in the started offensive line.

Colma Bulldogs Take Undisputed Lead In "A" League With Win Over OLPH Lions

The Colma Bulldogs fought their way into the undisputed lead in the A league by defeating a determined O.L.P.H. Lion in a terrific defensive battle which took two overtime periods to decide. The final score was 3-2 in favor of the Bulldogs but credit must be given to the O.L.P.H. Lions for putting up a terrific battle with an injury ridden squad.

The defensive play on both squads was so outstanding that the only scores in the regulation time were safties. Bill Clark gave the Bulldogs a brief 2-0 lead when he trapped Tommy Fenn of the Lions behind the goal for a safety. Late in the third quarter Dan Rasmussen of the Bulldogs got trapped behind his own goal and the score was tied 2-2. When the regulation game ended at 2-2, a special overtime period was played to break the tie. It ended in a tie, so another overtime period was played.

Rasmussen Saves Day

Dan Rasmussen, who could have been the goat of the game, suddenly became a hero when he intercepted a Lion pass and returned it ½ yard more than necessary and gave the Bulldogs a 3-2 victory. It was the second overtime loss for the Lions in as many weeks and they should be fighting mad when they go into the play-offs. Strangely enough these two teams meet again in a playoff for the championship and we call that game a toss-up.

The Bulldogs, Rich Duncan, Dan Rasmussen, Bill Clark, Larry Ziegler, Bob Gieseker, Don Moon, Ronald Davis, Mike Donham, James Hawthorne, Carl Mecchi and Mike Wedlake, all played like champions and look strong enough to take the championship.

Lions Still In

The Lions, Tommy Fenn, Frank Cordellos, Lee Casentini, Henry Oliver, Ronald Bell, Dick Garabaldi and Don Weckerele have the defensive ability to upset anyone if they play as hard as they did in this game. Don't count them out until the final game.

The other A League game was not as close as the Bulldog-Lion game. The Colma Panthers tried every play in the book in defeating the Colma Lions 70-0. George Rocchi of the Panthers ran and passed to a new Recreation Department scoring record while helping his team score 70 points. Eddie Leveroni, Billy McKay, Mike Harmon and Bob Brandt all scored in this wild game. Lou Arigghi, Jim Beaton, Leroy Franzoia and Billy Massoni all assisted in some terrific pass protection and downfield blocking to put the Panthers on the top of the scoring parade in the A league. The Panthers meet this same team in the playoffs for the championship and we give our vote to the Panthers. If they should lose, we will see the greatest upset of the season this Saturday.

Joe Ordonez, Jack Klingler, Bill Gordon, Bob Tydingco and Billy McGee put up a valiant battle and are mad enough to work up enough steam to give the Panthers a good score this Saturday.

Eagles Down Cats

The Colma Eagles continued to set a hot pace in the B league play by defeating the Colma Wildcats 46-0. Larry Caratti, Paul Tapia, Pat Lena and Reuben Martinez led the way in the scoring parade and James Wilson and John Miller provided the necessary pass protection and blocking for a fine offensive display. Jim Gustafson, Howie McGee, Gary Huston, Mike Deal, Kit Leslie, Ronald Nagy, Dale Weibel, Gary Cowden and Tom Hill played their hearts out but were overpowered by the size and power of the Eagles.

Bill Bricker led the O.L.P.H. Rams to a 15-0 victory over the Colma Mustangs to give the Rams a tie for first place in league standings with the Colma Eagles. Bricker passes to Anthony Stagnero, Ronnie Rose and Joe Murphy provided the scoring for the Rams. Ed Coleman, Bob Steele, Mike Brush, Billy Francis, Arthur Garcia and Joe Stagnero all aided in crushing the battling Mustangs. Wayne Guisti, Claude Anger, Roy Lanza, Albert Tafoyia, Rich Ross, Dick Tomlinson and Frank Belli gave the Rams a bad time before two touchdown passes broke up the game.

B Teams Reverse

The B league teams reverse for the semi-final play-offs with the Eagles playing the Mustangs and the Rams playing the Wildcats. Both the Rams and the Eagles are favored to defeat their opponents in the semi-finals and to meet on Nov. 15 for the B league championship.

Jeff Frosh-Soph Take Third Win

The Jefferson frosh-soph gridders, who have only a tie to mar their season's record, edged out Sequoia high school, 20-19, last week.

The Indians now have three wins, and one tie with Menlo-Atherton.

It was the one conversion made via the toe of Charlie Lewkowitz that gave the Jeffs their victory. The Indians scored in the first stanza on a 40-yard pass play from Jim Honeywell to Bob Grubb and Lewkowitz booted the extra point.

The Sequoiamen scored first when Tom McClure passed 15 yards to Jim Mastin, who ran it over from the five.

Sequoia jumped into the lead in the second period on Bill Farris' running pass to Mastin, who nabbed it on the Jeff 18 and ran it over.

The Indians moved back into the lead just as the half ended when Honeywell ran back a punt 85 yards to score.

Sequoia scored again in the third quarter when Buck Bozzo passed to Tom Balin for 15 yards after Bozzo had set it up on a 45-yard statue of liberty play. The Indians struck back with a Honeywell Del Hammond pass, good for 45 yards.

ONE WAY POWER GOES

Power disappears in many ways in the case of the automobile engine, points out L. G. Evans, general service manager for the National Automobile Club. One cause that is forgotten entirely too often is clogging of the muffler. As designed, the device builds up no back pressure against the engine. Mufflers, however, do collect carbon and dirt and as a result hinder the engine in its effort to do a good job. The fact might be remembered by motorists who are puzzled over the loss of power.

JEFF LIGHTWEIGHTS DROP TWO GAMES TO SAN MATEO IN LEAGUE COMPETITION

The winning ways of the two Jefferson lightweight basketball teams were ended abruptly last week by the San Mateo Bearcats, who took a double bill from the local casaba men.

San Mateo's 20's, in copping the 37-27 victory from the Jeffs, moved a step closer to the league championship in their division.

The Jeff 10s, leading a good part of the contest, lost out 20-12, in the final quarter.

The Indian 20s started off a breakneck speed, with forward Johnny Marshall tanking five shots in succession to give the locals a 10-6 margin going into the second quarter. At this point the San Mateans turned on the steam and the Jeffs never regained the lead.

The Indians shave the Bearcat lead to 26-20 in the third quarter but the Mateans' fast break stymied any further Indian drive.

The 10 contest started slow, seesawing back and forth, with the Jeffs leading, 6-5, at the quarter, 8-7, at the half.

In the final six minutes, four drive-in layups by the Mateans turned the tide of the contest. It was the third win of the season for the San Mateo 10s, who had previously been beaten by the Jeffs.

Jeff Lights Take Two From Cougars

With forwards Dick Kalinin and Neil Sporth leading the way, the Jefferson lights grabbed two cage encounters from Half Moon Bay last week.

Kalinin scored 11 digits for the 10s in their 30-23 win over the Cougars, while Sporth scored 12 points in the second game to give the locals a 29-20 win over the Half Moon Bay 20s.

The Jeff 20s now have five wins in six contests. It was the sixth straight loss for the Cougar 10s and the fourth loss in six starts for their 20s.

Cougar's Jack Conci wrapped up high scoring honors for the day's play with 16 points.

Local Seaman Is Booked for Assault

Merchant Seaman James L. Hart, 35, of 163 Flournoy street, Daly City, was jailed in San Francisco last week after he allegedly got into a heated political argument with a waitress.

The waitress, Ruth A. Hotaling, 40, told police Hart had consumed two bowls of chile in her coffee shop at 112 Mason street and had argued over the cost and the quality of the food.

Then he changed his tactics and asked, "Are you registered to vote?" Miss Hotaling answered in the negative.

With that the seaman got ired. Police said he grabbed the woman by the neck, dragged her outside and struck her head against an awning. He was booked on suspicion of assault and released on $250 bail.

THE OUTDOORS

New Appointments

The appointment of game management supervisors for each of California's five new administrative regions has been announced by Setn Gordon, director of the Department of Fish and Game.

The five passed a state civil service promotional examination and took up their duties Nov. 1. All are now employed as game managers in the department's game conservation branch.

Gordon stated the men are the second "key group" to be put to work under the legislative reorganization program. Regional managers were named October 1, and fish management supervisors will be announced before Dec. 1, he revealed.

Reporting directly to the regional manager, the game supervisor will be responsible for administration and management of all types of regional game operations. He will oversee the operations of cooperative hunting areas, waterfowl management units, quail development and deer management projects, distribution of game birds, predator control, etc., and will inspect the operation and administration of licensed game bird clubs.

"The new appointments do not increase the number of employees," Gordon stated, "but merely expand the work load and materially increase the overall administrative responsibility of those promoted."

Game management supervisors and their regional headquarters:

Fred T. Ross, 34, Region I, Redding. A native of Pasadena, Ross has headed game operations in southeastern California, with headquarters in La Quinta.

Lawrence H. Cloyd, 42, Region II, Sacramento. He joined the fish and game agency in 1930 and has held the post of Sacramento district game manager since 1947.

Robert W. Lassen, 35, Region III, San Francisco. Holding a bachelor's degree in wildlife management from the Utah State University, Lassen has been with the Department since 1945, recently as north coast district game manager.

David M. Selleck, 39, Region IV, Fresno. A native of Bitterwater, California, Selleck became an assistant fish and game warden in 1937 after six years with the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. He steps from his present job as San Joaquin district game manager.

John N. Laughlin, 38, Region V, Los Angeles. A veteran of 16 years with the state agency, Laughlin holds a zoology degree from the University of Redlands. He is a former Coast Guard officer, and has directed game conservation activities in southern California since 1947.

New Fish Hatchery

Bids totaling $133,287 for initial construction phases of the state's Moccasin Creek fish hatchery in Tuolomne county have been let to Adam Arras and Son of San Francisco, it is reported by the California Department of Fish and Game.

The first phase of construction will include grading, fencing and construction of roads, building areas and 24 rearing ponds. The hatchery site is owned by the City of San Francisco.

The completed hatchery will cost an estimated $692,000, paid for by the Wildlife Conservation Board with its share of state pari-mutuel proceeds.

Model Game Lab

California's model game animal laboratory on the University of California campus will be moved early in November to larger quarters at 2809 Telegraph avenue, Berkeley.

Merton N. Rosen, parasitologist in charge, reports that the new combined fish and game lab will use 5,000 square feet of leased floor space with funds provided by the Federal aid Pittman-Robertson Act.

The Department of Fish and Game installation will be headquarters for game and inland fish disease, nutrition and food habits studies.

New Position

The California Department of Fish and Game will till a newly-created position of conservation education director and current and future openings for state fish and game wardens through two civil service examinations Dec. 6. Deadline for receipt of applications is Nov. 15.

The education director post is authorized under the agency's legislative reorganization program. Salary is $613 a month to start with annual raises up to $745. Wardens start at $310 per month, with a top of $376.

Warden candidates must have one year of full-time experience in State or Federal fish and game, park, or forestry work to qualify, provided the work required enforcement work is acceptable, as well as two years of experience as a California reserve warden.

Prospective wardens must be at least five feet, eight inches tall, swim 100 yards, row a boat, and possess normal vision and hearing.

College graduation is required for the education director, with additional experience allowed as a substitute on a year-for-year basis. One year of college training may be substituted for six months of the experience requirement in the warden test.

Five years of editorial or publicity work or five years in a responsible capacity in conservation or natural resources work is needed to apply for the education director job. If the latter record is submitted, it must include at least one year of publicity, education or training responsibilities.

Applications and further information may be obtained from the State Personnel Board at Sacramento, San Francisco or Los Angeles or any Department of Employment office.

Golden Trout Policy

The golden trout—unique and colorful native California—will be managed in the future by the Department of Fish and Game under a new eight-point policy adopted by the Fish and Game Commission at its October meeting.

Recommended by the department and the Organized Sportsment of California, the management plan is the result of two years of joint study. It is designed to protect the gaudy relative of the rainbow trout and its high Sierra habitat.

The policy defines the high mountainous areas of Madera, Fresno and Tulare counties as golden trout country, portions of which will be reserved exclusively for goldens.

A "reasonable number" of suitable barren lakes will be held in their present unpopulated condition for the stocking of goldens in the near future, and a golden trout egg-taking station will be set up to provide brood stock.

Other highlights of the policy include plans for extension of the present range of the fish, an intensive, long-range study, and immediate curtailment of planting of fish of other species in golden trout waters.

Biggest Cat

The biggest channel catfish ever landed in California—and the second largest ever landed in the United States—was taken on hook and line in the Topoc Swamp near Needles early this month, the State Department of Fish and Game reports.

The monster weighed 35 pounds and measured 40½ inches long and had a girth of 20 inches. It was landed by Wando L. Tull of Barstow, who immediately entered it in an outdoor magazine national contest.

Checking all available records, State Department biologists found only one larger channel "cat" landed nationally, a 55-pounder taken in 1949 in the James river, South Dakota.

These dresses, made in a variety of fabrics—nylon, rayon corded shantung, gabardine and crepe—emphasize unusual necklines and cut rather than the usual "tent drape" and fussy camouflage ordinarily found in these larger sizes. Colors are bright or dark—as you like them—and the prices will make you gasp with surprise!! Only $10.95 - $13.95!

GLEASON'S DRESS SHOP is the place! Address is 6335 Mission, telephone PLaza 5-5636—and yes, GLEASON'S also carries a full line of lingerie in these sizes, too, plus giving Thrifty Shopper Stamps with every purchase.

Crocker PTA Will View Sex Picture

Should the young ones be confronted with sex education in schools? That is the heart of the matter that will be taken up by the Crocker PTA following their viewing of a movie titled "Of Human Beginnings."

The movie will be shown by Dr. Ruth Kojyer of the San Mateo county education department at the PTA's regular meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Crocker school.

The film was created to be shown in the state of Oregon and is designed to be shown to fourth, fifth and sixth grade children.

Questionnaires will be distributed to the parents at the meeting and they will check the topics or questions that they wish discussed or answered by Dr. Kojyer.

Following the showing of the movie a poll will be taken on whether or not the movie should be shown to the school children at Crocker. If opinion is favorable, the Crocker PTA will have the movie shown to the children. It will, however, be shown only to the children with signed permission slips from their parents.

Mrs. Al Lyon, president, has urged all parents to attend the meeting, see the movie, and decide whether or not they want their children to see the movie.

The executive board of the Crocker PTA met Wednesday night at the school and plans were formed for the bazaar that is to be held Friday, Dec. 5.

NEW CONTRIBUTIONS BRING CHEST TOTAL HERE TO 36 PER CENT

Recent contributions of $494.86 this week brought the Daly City Community Chest drive to 36 per cent of its quota, as compared with 27.2 per cent which had been donated up to last week.

A total of $194 was received by the business section, while residential contributions came to $300.86, bringing the figure now for the whole area to $3075.98 of the $8500 quota set.

The drive here will be continued until the quota is reached, according to Fred Bertetta, chairman.

Chamber of Commerce Holds First Meet; Next Session Is Scheduled for Thursday

Daly City's new Chamber of Commerce got down to business at their first meeting last Thursday at Lake Merced Golf course by approving stationery for the organization and by submitting decals to be used by members.

Announcement was also made that the chamber will sponsor spot radio announcements in the near future.

At the last count there were 36 charter members in the local group, with 200 members the eventual goal. The concerted membership drive will be held until the first of the year.

As yet the chamber is in the nucleus stage, but Robert Hunter, membership chairman, said that when sufficient membership is attained, a board of directors will be named to formulate policy.

Among those attending last week's meeting were: Bill Kennedy, president; Alice Van Over, secretary; Dan Harris, vice president; Dan Andersen, city administrator; Hunter, and his two aides, Fred Martin and Marshall Sanders.

Members and prospective members have been invited to attend the next luncheon meeting to be held Nov. 13 at Lake Merced Golf course. Those interested should contact Mrs. Van Over, PL. 5-0867, for reservations.

Motorist Says Lights Differ in San Francisco

John J. Carroll, 1337 South Van Ness avenue, San Francisco, thinks he got the raw end of the deal when cited for running the lights at the intersection of Mission and San Jose avenue.

In protest scrawled profusely over his citation, he said, "Enclosed find $5 for payment of my fine. This is a forfeiture of bail, and not an admission of guilt."

His explanation was: "The light was green at the bank, yellow in the middle of the street, and red at the far end, so I kept on going as I do in San Francisco. I still don't see where I'm guilty of a violation."

Man Goes Through Window in Colma

A 64-year-old San Francisco man found himself inside a Colma barbershop Sunday evening even though the establishment was not open for business at the time.

Joseph Cholewa, 42 Prospect street, was walking by the shop when he suddenly lurched through the plate glass window, winding up on the floor inside the building.

Both his hands were badly cut and he was taken first to Junipero Serra hospital for stitches, next to the local police station, for a night of incarceration in the jail. Cholewa, described by police as being in a "drunken condition" was released on $10 bail. He is scheduled to appear in court Wednesday.

The wayward pedestrian also planned to contact Frank Garibaldi, owner of the shop, to get an estimate on the cost of the broken window.

Arraigned Monday on Narcotics Charge -- Enters Plea Today

ARRAIGNED MONDAY in Superior Court was Aris Tee Allen, 21 year old Daly City youth, charged with possession of narcotics. Allen will enter his plea today at 9:45 a.m. The court Monday appointed James Parmele to act as his counsel. Allen was given until today to enter his plea, after the case was continued from Monday. He was picked up a week ago after allegedly molesting a young girl who lives near him at 275 Hillcrest drive. Police at the time said that he was "acting funny" and upon investigation "reefers" were found on his person. Allen commented at the preliminary hearing that he cou'd buy marijuana cigarettes anytime in the Fillmore district if he had the money.

Time To Mail Gifts To GIs Is Now

Too early for Christmas mailing to Daly City men overseas? "Don't you believe it!" says Postmaster John F. Fixa.

This year there are more friends, relatives and sweethearts in our Armed Forces overseas than at any time since World War II. Their precious gifts should be mailed before Nov. 15, which means NOW is the time to start.

"Nothing makes me so sad," the postmaster declared, "as to forward overseas a Christmas package that may not be delivered before Dec. 25." Gift parcels for Korea, Okinawa and Japan should be in the mails NOW.

It's best, of course, to send parcel post by air mail and to be sure that it is in the mail by Nov. 25 because after that date the movement of air parcel post from our ports to overseas areas during the Christmas mailing period will be contingent upon the military requirements.

Be sure the address is printed in INK and includes the recipient's full name, serial number, branch of service, organization, and correct APO or FPO.

Include the sender's name and address on a card inside all packages. All parcels should be securely wrapped and tied with strong cord. Use heavy corrugated cartons for added protection during their long journey. Valuable overseas gifts should be registered or insured.

Delivery of the Christmas mail overseas is a complex operation. In some areas, the postal services of our Army, Air Force or Navy will take up where the U. S. Post Office leaves off. It will help them greatly if everyone follows the suggestions above, Fixa said.

In The Past

TEN YEARS AGO IN THE RECORD

Thursday, Nov. 5. — Daly City voters, more than 3000 of them, went to the polls Tuesday to participate in the first wart-time general election since World War I. Unlike the state as a whole, the majority cast their ballots for Culbert L. Olson for governor. Earl Warren, California's new governor, received 1398 votes in Daly City, while Olson got 1919.

Two well-known local men went into office in San Mateo county as a result of Tuesday's election. John J. Fahey Jr., native of this community, and son of Councilman John J. Fahey Sr., was elected justice of the peace for the First Township over Judge Wade H. Clay; while Ralph C. MacArthur, former resident, and businessman here, is now tax collector for San Mateo county, winning over John W. Poole.

Turnout of voters here was better than 50 per cent.

Today's governor-elect of California, Earl Warren, was an honored guest in Daly City Monday, as he wound up his successful gubernatorial campaign at a luncheon meeting held at Shorty Robert's on Junipero Serra boulevard.

Support to a petition circulated and signed by many local citizens demanding a war price and rationing board within Daly City—was given by the city council Monday night at a special meeting.

Emphasizing the need for a rationing board here to eliminate repeated trips to South San Francisco for ration permits, the city council adopted a resolution aproving the petition.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO IN THE RECORD

Friday, Nov. 5.—Those plumbers found negligent of paying the $5 due on every "job" since March of 1936, when George Riddell became plumbing inspector, may be required to make complete amends.

The action was proposed and tentatively endorsed in a caucus meeting of the city council Monday of this week. Legal means of enforcing this action will be determined on advice of the city attorney.

A new move to institute an independent post office in Daly City was favored by the Merchants Association in a meeting Wednesday evening of this week.

When Ernest W. Lewis, local resident, first proposed the action to the city council in its last caucus session, he was told by the trustees that they would indorse the project if they were backed by the Merchants Association.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO IN THE RECORD

Friday, Nov. 4.—Property owners in Daly City and throughout the county are learning, upon the receipt of bills from the office of county auditor, that fifty-seven year old taxes must now be paid or the property may be sold at public auction.

Charles E. Skidmore, tax expert, employed by the supervisors of San Mateo county to clear up unpaid taxes, some dating as far back as 1861, has just completed the first section of his work along the coastside.

Some bills were received as high as $250 and as low as 30 cents.

In appreciation of the winning football aggregation representing Jefferson Union high school this year, the Daly City Lions club will present a cup emblematic of the championship of B division, northern section.

The victory, on Oct. 21, over the South San Francisco team sent stock in local athletics booming, coming as it did after fruitless years since the opening of Jefferson high.

LOCAL INSURANCE REPRESENTATIVE TO ATTEND CONFAB

Richard L. Davis, local representative for the Prudential Insurance Company of America in Daly City, has qualified for attendance at the Region "T" Business Conference which will be held at the Statler Hotel in Los Angeles, Nov. 24, 25 and 26, it was announced by Harmon J. Davis, district manager.

Qualifications for attendance are based on production of new insurance and outstanding service. "Selection of Mr. Davis to be present at the conference is company recognition for excellence as a life underwriter," the district manager said.

Davis will meet with other outstanding delegates from the West and will discuss special problems concerning the life insurance industry and methods of bringing added service to Prudential policyholders.

RIGHT TIME TO RECAP

Although the most economical time to have a tire recapped is when the tread is worn smooth, the California State Automobile Association recommends, for safety's sake, that tires not be used after the tread design has been so worn as to lose its anti-skid quality.

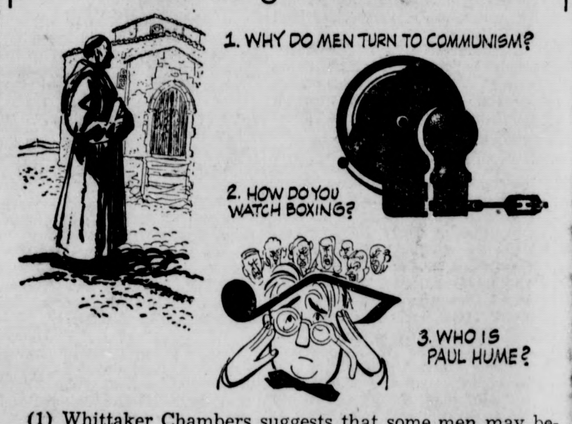
Knowledge is Power



(1) Whittaker Chambers suggests that some men may become communists because they suffer from the "three great alienations of the spirit." In his book, "Saints For Now," Chambers defines these as "the alienation of the spirit of man from traditional authority; his alienation from the idea of traditional order; and a crippling alienation that he feels at the point where civilization has deprived him of the joy of simple productive labor."

(2) If you want to enjoy the fight thoroughly, take a tip from Jack Dempsey's book, "Championship Fighting." The big secret, explains Dempsey, is this: "Keep your eyes and your attention focused on both men. If you watch from the angle of one fighter, it's almost certain that you'll overestimate his performance."

He suggests further that you try keeping a score sheet of your own, but don't try to write on your sheet during a round. "Keep your eyes fixed on the fighters. That's important. If you glance away from the ring for an instant, you may miss the knockout punch. Describe only the highlights of each round in about three lines, written after the round is finished."

(3) Hume is the music critic of the Washington Post who wrote an unfavorable review of Margaret Truman's singing two years ago. His review prompted the president to write him a threatening letter which received international publicity.

Writing about the incident in The Sign magazine, Hume recalls that in the space of two weeks, "nearly 2,000 written opinions of myself, in seven languages, from a radius of 12,000 miles" arrived in the newspaper office.

Along with the letters he received three rubber noses, four pairs of boxing gloves, and a ten-pound pure beef baloney!
